A visit to District Court Complex Hamirpur for knowing the Lok Adalat proceedings

The students of law department, Career Point University Hamirpur visited District Court Complex Hamirpur and watched the Lok Adalat proceedings. The district court organizes such Lok Adalats time to time in which different litigating parties put their particular dispute before the court for address and court resolve these matters in summary manner. As the Lok Adalat's proceeding is easier than the regular courts, many people try to resolve their disputes through it. This educational tour was organized by the CPU Hamirpur through the courtesy of presiding officers of District Courts. The aim of these type of tours is to give the law students practical shape to their study, so that after the completion of law degree students should use their wisdom in the welfare of society or general public.
