

Fresher Party at Girl's Hostel

The Rock and Roll theme based fresher party was organized at Girl's Hostel. The Vice Chancellor, Prof. P.L. Gautam, Registrar, Dr. Sanjeev Sharma and Sports Advisor, Shri K.S. Thakur were present at the party. A number of activities such as Giddha, Bhangra, Modelling etc. were planned and showcased with great vigor. At the end of the party Ms Priyanka, Ms Aditi and Ms Rupali were elected as Ms Fresher, Ms Personality and Ms Charming, respectively.

Teacher's Day Celebration

On 5th September, Career Point University celebrated "Drug Addiction Day" and "Teacher's Day" all together. On this eve, University organized an awareness rally against drug addiction which was inaugurated by Shri Pankaj Sharma, BDO Bhoranj, Prof. M.R. Sharma, Dean, Academic Affairs, Dr. Sanjeev Sharma, Registrar and Ms Jyoti, NSS Co-ordinator. Besides this, students also celebrated Teacher's Day with great enthusiasm.

All departments of the University enormously took part in the ceremony. Students highlighted the importance of teacher in education by showing documentaries on Dr. S. Radhakrishnan and playing inspirational skits. In the end, Dr. Kamal Sharma, Sr. Scientist (Agroforestry), College of Horticulture and Forestry-Neri, Hamirpur delivered a guest lecture on the side effects of consuming Cannabis, Opium and Parthenium species.

Visit to Y.S. Parmar Research Centre

The students of Botany Department visited the Y.S. Parmar Research Centre Bhota. At the research centre, students learnt about different types of plants and trees like Bonsai, Cactus, Bryophyte, Pteridophyte, Angiosperm, etc. Students also collected samples of different kinds of Algae and Fungi. The presence of faculty members, Dr. Hem Chander and Ms Shashi Dhiman made the visit successful.

Seminar on Preparation for Civil Services

A seminar entitled "Why to opt for civil services-how to prepare during regular study? Mantras of success." was organized by the Professional Development Cell of the University. The eminent speakers of the seminar Dr. K.R. Bharti, I.A.S (Rtd.), Dr. Shiv Kumar Sharma, Additional DSP Hamirpur and Ms Renu Sharma, Deputy SP Dehra, motivated the students to opt civil services and gave them important tips. The seminar was presided over by the Vice Chancellor Prof. P.L. Gautam. A website of Professional Development Cell was also launched by the Vice Chancellor. This website includes information about the syllabus, old question papers and other important things related to civil services.

Prof. M.R. Sharma, Dean Academic Affairs welcomed the speakers. Dr. K.R. Bharti briefed about the establishment & progress of the civil services from the British Indian era to the present time and also differentiated the civil services from other ones. Dr. Shiv Kumar Sharma shared his inspiring views on when and how to prepare for the civil services. He said that there are nine pillars like Geography, Economics, Indian Parliament & Constitution, Current affairs, etc. of the preparation for the civil services.

Lastly, Ms Renu also shared her thoughts on how civil services are different as a whole from other jobs. She also added that, hard work and regular studies are the full proof mantras of success and there are no shortcuts for achieving it. At the end, Prof. D.K. Gautam, Dean Engineering & Technology expressed his gratitude to the speakers for sparing their valuable time.

Engineering Day Celebration

Engineering Day was celebrated by the School of Engineering & Technology on 15.09.2016, the birthday of Sir M. Visvesvaraya. On this occasion, the students of Civil Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, Computer Science, Electronics & Communication Engineering Departments presented the inspiration documentaries and speeches. This occasion was presided by Dean Engineering & Technology, Prof. D.K. Gautam and duly attended by all faculty members. In his speech, Dean Academic Affairs, Dr. M.R. Sharma focused on the challenges of 21st century. Vice Chancellor Prof. P.L. Gautam highlighted the life of Sir M. Visvesvaraya and encourages the students to take inspiration from his life. He also announced that in near future the University Library will be named as Sir M. Visvesvaraya Library.

Blood Donation Camp

The NSS day celebrated in the University Campus on 24.09.2016. On this occasion, a blood donation camp was organized with the help of Red Cross Club.

The camp was inaugurated by the Vice Chancellor of the University and Dr. Pushpinder Verma from Zonal Hospital Hamirpur. The Vice Chancellor added that blood donation is a very noble work and we all should donate blood for saving someone's life. The students and staff of the University donated thirty units blood.

National Conference at Pune

Research scholar Mr. Sandeep Sharma from Management Department presented his research paper in the National Conference held at Maharashtra, Pune and made the University proud. This Conference was organized by Indian Association for Social Sciences and Health Organization from 23-25 September. This organization has been working under the guidance of International Institute for Population Sciences, Mumbai. The main objective of this conference was to discuss the matters pertaining to Health, Gender and Progress of Nation. More than 250 Scholars from country and other nations presented their research papers. In this context, Mr. Sandeep Sharma discussed in details about the Impact of Environmental Hazards on Our Health.

Workshop on Basic IT Skills

An online workshop on Basic IT Skills organized by CSE Department of the University in collaboration with IIT Mumbai. Students from various departments attended the workshop and they were briefed online in the language laboratory about the basic concepts of the computer. The workshop was organized in lieu to the spoken tutorial project “talk to a teacher” launched by the Ministry of Human Resources Development, Government of India.

Editorial Board

First Row: Anchal Dhiman M.Sc. Physics, Pooja BCA, Sanjana Chauhan B.Sc. Hons. Chemistry and Yamini Naryal B.Sc. Hons. Physics.

Second Row: Mr. Saurabh Kumar AP English and Dr. Kuldeep Kumar AP Chemistry.